HITCHCOCK FAVORS SALE.

To Recommend Indian Land Legislation in Report.

ENCOURAGE SETTLERS.

Secretary of Interior Proposes Laws Allowing Indians of Five Tribes to Sell Allotments to Homesteaders.

Washington, Nov. 19.—In his forthcoming report Secretary Hitchcock will recommend that legislation be enacted authorizing sale of lands held by Indian allottees of the five civilized tribes. Under existing laws only the Creek Indians are allowed to sell their lands immediately upon securing patents. In the other tribes such sales are postponed for five years.

The secretary will recommend that these laws be changed so as to permit sales by all the five tribes "to be made only to actual settlers who should be required to occupy and improve the lands for five years before receiving deeds conveying full title to them." The secretary will express the opinion that under the proposed arrangement the Indians will receive larger sums for their land and also that they will be greatly benefited by having actual settlers in close proximity to the residue of their land.

"Such legislation" he says, "will tend to prevent the accumulation of large tracts of land for speculative purposes only and will permit the purchase of the lands by persons desirous of making there homes for themselves upon the Indian lands."

The secretary is confident that his plan will result in the rapid increase of desirable population in Indian Territory and will greatly relieve the present situation, which he says, enables the speculator to crowd out the homeseeker, leaves the Indian a helpless victim to the cupidity of the unscrupulous and seriously embarrasses development.
